GIVE YOUR BUSINESS A HEALTH CHECK

Completing a business health check is a great way to review the operations and performance of your business. And there is no better time than the lead up to tax time.

It also gives owner/operators the chance to identify strength and weaknesses, spot new growth opportunities, set business goals and reduce business risks.

It will also give you a chance to review your financial performance against short term targets and long term goals.

Our local experts are available to assist you with valuable advice and provide you with the knowledge to evolve and succeed.

PROUDLY SUPPORTED BY:

Hi, I'm Sandra, the Home Loan Specialist at your local CUA Penrith branch.

As a Penrith local for the last 18 years, I've had the pleasure of assisting hundreds of home buyers purchase their first home in the area. I've also watched local families grow and helped them use the equity in their property to renovate or move into a bigger family home.

Over the years, I've gained a great deal of experience helping members create wealth for their future retirement, invest in the property market and build up their asset portfolio. In fact, I find it really satisfying helping to bring their dreams to life. It can even be as simple as consolidating debt (credit cards and personal loans) and guiding them back on track financially.

I'm dedicated to helping CUA members with their banking and insurance needs at every opportunity and to delivering the CUA difference.
